FEELING GOOD: KAREN UNDERWOOD AND JOHN O'BRIEN.

8PM, FRI 30 OCTOBER
DURATION: 70MINS | NO INTERVAL

Welcome to The Everyman stage for a heart-warming and joyful night of roof-raising jazz, soul and blues by the Chicago native Karen Underwood, accompanied on piano by John O'Brien.

Karen has captivated audiences all over Ireland with her powerful, passionate, and moving interpretations of the songs of Billie Holliday, Nina Simone, Dinah Washington, Whitney Houston and Amy Winehouse.

KAREN UNDERWOOD

Born on the south side of Chicago, and a Cork native since 1997, Karen Underwood has written and performed four of her own shows which have toured across the country to critical and popular acclaim.

She has played all the major Irish venues including The Olympia, Vicar Street, the Gaiety, National Concert Hall, Cork Opera House and The Everyman, and is a regular at festivals including Oxegen, Electric Picnic, Body and Soul, Black Box Festival of Fools, and Cork Jazz Festival.

She has appeared live on TV3, TG4 and been guest on numerous radio shows including Pat Kenny, Derek Mooney, Marty Whelan, Miriam O'Callaghan, and John Creedon. Her previous albums are 'Ban the use of Jazz Music' with Cartoon and her debut solo album 'Live at The Everyman' with John O'Brien.

Her new album 'Lilith' - a song cycle by John O'Brien and Éadaoin O'Donoghue - about Adam's first wife, made of earth and clay... not rib - debuts on 14 November. It features songs with influences from the worlds of soul, blues, tango, pop and classical - a gleefully irreverent, sacred, sexy take on Creation.
